

About Colma

Early settlers arrived in Colma nearly 150 years ago. They built a community at the base of the San Bruno Mountains with farms, a school and cemeteries.

Neighboring San Francisco passed an ordinance in 1902 prohibiting all interments within its boundaries. The rapidly growing city looked south to San Mateo County for the land it needed, and in 1924 this search led to the incorporation of the cemeteries established a quarter of a century earlier, as the City of Lawndale.

Over the years, businesses and a small residential district grew around the cemeteries. In 1941, the U.S. Postal Officials requested that the name be changed because there was another city in Southern California named Lawndale. At that time the name was changed to the Town of Colma. The following charts are based on information collected from the 2000 Census.
